Kavivarma, a highly dedicated student from India had joined us to begin his ACCA journey online. Here is what he had to say about his experience.

“I am a 12th grade student and decided to start my ACCA classes before i entered college. Fortunately, Wisdom started coaching for ACCA too. I knew about the excellent coaching offered to the CIMA students, so I knew Wisdom was it! The lecturers decode each and every topic making it easy for me to balance my board preparation and ACCA studies. Not to forget the admin staff who are always ready to assist you with anything and everything. Lastly, i thank myself for making a good decision and joining the best coaching centre one could ask for!”

Harisneka was able to place her trust in us when choosing an institute to start her ACCA journey.

“I was in a state of confusion of where to pursue my ACCA course. I was introduced to wisdom through a friend and wasn't sure if it would work out well as it is a 100% online course and if I will be able to manage without physical classes. I was unsure of distance learning as I thought reaching there for any inquiry would also not be easy as I'm in India. However, I was able to do everything online and the management guided me through the whole process. WisdomLMS solved the issue of missing online classes with the facility of accessing the past sessions whenever needed and through video lectures as well. Mock exams and unit tests are conducted just to check our efficiency but it acted as a major key for improving more.

As I'm doing my Grade 12 currently, I have faced so many issues in coping up with both ACCA and school, but the lecturers are so friendly and approachable. Whenever needed, they clarify doubts immediately and make the concept easier. Wisdom is the best in both teaching and guidance for a successful path ahead. Thank you wisdom for giving me a good platform!”

Furthering his chances of success as a qualified finance professional, here is what Trishan from St. Benedict's college had to say about choosing to do ACCA with us at Wisdom...!

“ACCA is my first step towards a professional career. I knew i made the best decision choosing Wisdom as I am now learning under a highly experienced lecture panel. Having Wisdom offering it's finest user-friendly LMS, with access to learning material at our own convenience, class work is surely made easier for all of us”
